

CAB No. 422 / 09.05.02 / 2018-19

April 10, 2019

The Chairman / Chief Executive Officer of UCBs

Madam / Dear Sir,

Programme on Asset Liability Management and Investment for officers of Urban Co-operative Banks (May 27 to 30, 2019)

Asset Liability Management (ALM) is a key-skill required for the management of a bank's profit and liquidity. ALM is also intrinsically linked to the investment portfolio of a bank. The interplay of investments with other assets and liabilities of the bank need to be understood by key personnel of the bank. College of Agricultural Banking (CAB) is therefore providing an integrated course in ALM and investment with the objective of capacity building for the urban cooperative banking sector. The programme aims to equip the officers of urban cooperative banks with a strong foundation in the theory and practice of modern ALM and investment management. The programme is scheduled from May 27 to 30, 2019 at the Pune campus of CAB. The objectives, course content, fees and other details of the programme are given in the Annex and brochure.

2. We have the pleasure in inviting nominations from your bank for this programme and hope that you will make use of the opportunity. The nominees are requested to report to the College by the evening of May 26, 2019. As the programme will conclude at about 5.30 p.m. on May 30, 2019, the return journey may be planned accordingly. Please send your nominations on cabacademic@rbi.org.in.
